

Surplus Line Association of Oregon Filing Registration Application

To transact surplus line insurance (for which Oregon is the “home state”) as a licensed producer, you must FIRST obtain an Oregon Surplus Line License from the Insurance Division. For licensing information, contact Ethan Baldwin of the State of Oregon Insurance Division at 503.947.7209. You can then register with The Surplus Line Association of Oregon as a Filer under “License Information Category 1” below.

If you are an insured, consultant, or producer licensed in a foreign country, you may register as a Filer under “License Information Category 2” below and file the appropriate taxes without an Oregon license (provided you comply with the requirements for such transactions).
